MAGICAL MOMENTS

Welcome back to a brand-new half term! We hope that you all had a fabulous and well-deserved rest over the holidays and are now ready and raring to go for what we know will be another jam packed 7 weeks.

This week has started strong in our Partner Schools, and it had been an absolute delight to visit schools and see the huge amount of progress their children are making after their strong start. LS visits are underway and the reports show that schools are moving at pace within their phonics practice – keep up the amazing work everyone it will massively pay off in the long run.

Remember to keep sharing your reading environments with us so that we can celebrate and share them with everyone. It is always a pleasure to see your schools and so that we can continue to learn from each other.

Have a fabulous week everyone,

Sally Mayman (Hub Delivery Lead)

& Team JCEH

Spotlight on 1:1 Tuition:

Making sure your Autumn 1 assessments really support focused 1:1 tuition:

- Use your assessments to pinpoint individual gaps for each child.
- Make sure the assessments are shared explicitly with the person delivering the tutoring so that they focus on the gaps.
- Take care they include information about blending. If a child is not yet blending, they should be having 1:1 tuition to support this and blending throughout the day.

Making sure the strongest staff deliver 1:1 tuition and keep up sessions:

- Make sure all reading teachers have been trained on how to deliver keep up sessions.
- Teach to the sound gaps using the sound tracker to inform the challenge point.
- Assess the progress informally each week and reframe the tuition as needed.
- Provide coaching and support to make sure these key sessions have a big impact, invest time in supporting the tutors to be the very best they can be.
